

CityBlocks.com Investor One-Sheet

Domain Established in 1997 – Never Published

CityBlocks.com is a rare digital asset—an untouched, premium domain held since 1997.

Key Highlights:

- ■ One owner since 1997 (pre-Google era)
- ■ Clean history — never developed, never published
- ■ Powerful brand name, extremely versatile
- ■ Perfect for a metaverse engine, city builder, or digital infrastructure project

Primary Brand Focus:

CityBlocks.com is envisioned as a 'Metaverse Engine'—a platform where users can build immersive cities set in various time periods: 1940s, Present Day, Future, and Historic Past.

Additional Potential Applications:

- Urban Planning Simulation
- Social Networking (location-based or era-themed)
- Blockchain-Based Asset Layering
- Educational Platform for History & Society

Why It Matters:

- This domain is clean, memorable, and predates most of the modern internet
- It evokes nostalgia and futurism simultaneously
- It's visually and vocally brandable

Available for sale or partnership (equity/cash combination preferred).
